FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SkyWest Resumes Seasonal Flights to West Yellowstone Beginning May 25!

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Montana May 12, 2017 – SkyWest Airlines is pleased to resume daily jet flights from Salt Lake City to West Yellowstone (WYS) for the 2017 summer season, starting May 25! The seasonal Delta Connection service ensures visitors to Yellowstone National Park will enjoy quick, convenient flights and unmatched access to the world’s first national park.

Customers may book their WYS flights today at www.delta.com or by calling Delta reservations at 800.221.1212.

“There just isn’t a more convenient option for planning a summer trip to Yellowstone National Park, since direct flights to the West Yellowstone Airport give travelers more time to experience the park,” said Greg Atkin, SkyWest Airlines’ managing director – Market Development. “Now is the perfect time to plan and book a Yellowstone vacation.”

Daily round-trip jet service will be available beginning May 25 onboard the 50-seat Canadair Regional Jet (CRJ200). An additional roundtrip flight will be available Thursday through Monday during June and September, daily during July, and Wednesday through Monday during August. These flight options ensure passengers are able to easily connect onto hundreds of destinations around the world through Delta’s global network in Salt Lake City.

“Yellowstone Airport is very excited to host the jet service again!” says Jeff Kadlec, Airport Manager, Yellowstone Airport. “Everyone is looking forward to the return of the daily round-trip flights and the benefit these flights bring to our community.”

SkyWest Airlines has proudly partnered with the West Yellowstone community since 1986 to provide quality air service. The airline is also a leading CRJ200 operator and has been named the manufacturer’s most reliable operator in North America five times.
